The Living Word

Let's now cross the bridge into the world of John's radical thinking

The Living Word

In the beginning
was the Word

John 1 v 1

The Living Word

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God and the Word was God. He was with God in the beginning.

John 1 v 1

The Living Word

Through Him (ie the Word) all things were made; without Him nothing was made that has been made.

In Him was life, and that life was the light of men. The light shines in the darkness, but the darkness has not understood it. There came a man from God; his name was John. He came as a witness to testify concerning that light, so that through Him all men might believe. He himself was not the light, he came only as a witness to the light.

The Living Word

The true light that gives light to every man was coming into the world. He was in the world, and though the world was made through him, the world did not recognise him. He came to that which was his own, but his own did not receive him. Yet to all who received him, to those who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God – children born not of natural descent, nor of human decision or a husband's will, but born of God.
